Year 7 example

The image shows a OneNote interface with a purple header. On the left is a 'Year 7' timetable with columns for subjects and teachers. The main area displays a page titled 'EXAMPLE' with a date '12 March 2020 15:08' and a list of instructions. Below the instructions is a 'Networking Lesson 1' icon and a 'T1 Homework' icon. At the bottom, there is a dark blue header for 'Homework 1 Ethical and cultural issues' and 'Unit 5 Impacts of digital technology', followed by a form for 'Name', 'Class', and 'Mark'. The main content of the homework page includes a reminder about written communication quality, instructions for answering questions, and a specific question about GPS tracking devices.

1. Subject lists on left- Check which subjects you have for that day (Via Go4schools)

2. Select which class is yours with teacher

3. Look at lesson and resources within and action learning.

4. Send work to teacher via email for feedback (mainly Yr11,12,13) if asked for.

5. Scroll down the page for future lessons when in timetable

Name: Class: Mark:

Remember that the quality of written communication is assessed in examinations in questions marked with an asterisk (*).

When answering the following questions, remember to:

- Plan some key ideas or areas of focus before you start writing
- Make sure your answer applies to the context given and that all parts are relevant
- Weigh up both sides of the discussion
- If asked to consider specific impacts (e.g. cultural, ethical, legal or environmental), make sure to focus on these rather than other areas

1.* Parents can now buy GPS tracking devices for their children. This allows them to monitor their child's location at any time.

Discuss the impact of tracking children with GPS devices.

In your answer, you might consider the impact on:

- Cultural issues
